

Alwyn Jones
Community Service Award
2019

Nominee
Armidale/Uralla
Meals on Wheels

Nominated by
Ian Johnstone

For 53 years of service providing meals to elderly and disabled clients daily on week days and frozen for weekends. Delivery of the meals by volunteers who provide their own transport, also provides social interaction with and oversight of clients.

This service requires considerable management in association with local organisations which provide regular volunteers. Recent development of local food production has further improved the quality of the service.
